Some people follow trends. Other people set them.

Become a kitchen mixologist. Mix generous portions of contrasting cabinet colors with various cool counter textures. It’s easy to do with a limited neutral palette. The base cabinets are smooth Painted Linen, while the kitchen island blends a dark granite with a lighter silky quartz. The feature wall complements it all with a dash of Maple Cognac. Whether you prefer shaken or stirred, you’ll be the coolest mixologist on the block, and your soirées will be the envy of all the neighbors.
